THE REV. RICH'D. CATTERMOLE, B. D.

THE REV. HENRY STEBBING, M. A. O other country is so eich as England in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Porlosophers have shared with her Disines, in setting forth and establishing the truths of Revelation; while her Divines have een distinguished atike by the copiousnes and the depth of their learning.

The soundness of character thus given to the standard Theology of England has, thro' a variety of circumstances, been happily prevented from degenerating into the harshine of sen lasticism; and thus the whole series of our *Sacred Classics, is a well of truth and consolition, as open to the general reader as to the most learned Student.

It is jutched to comprise in this collection, the best works of all the most celebrated wri-tics, whose above have been devoted to the e-go determined processal enforcement of the point, es or a vided truth, whether in their time to the memortal interests of indi-
